GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS BARRETT TO DISTRICT COURT BENCH

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley today appointed Sharon Tracey Barrett to the District Court bench in the 28th Judicial District (Buncombe County). Barrett takes the seat vacated by the retirement of Judge Peter Roda.

“As a private practitioner since 1986, Sharon Barrett has distinguished herself as an outstanding and hard-working lawyer,” Easley said. “She will make an excellent addition to the District Court bench.”

Barrett has maintained a litigation practice in both state and federal courts since 1986. She has represented clients in all courts from Small Claims Court to the United States Supreme Court. Barrett is past president of the 28th Judicial District Bar and has been a participant in the Mountain Area Volunteer Lawyers program for 19 years.

Barrett received her undergraduate degree from Boston College in 1983 and her law degree from Georgetown University Law Center in 1986.
